W. CLARENCE STEWART, Manager
SATURDAY, AUG. 10, 1912To the Colored men who can find it possible, after denouncing President Theodore Roosevelt as a despot, demagogue, lynchier and betrayer of the confiding Colored race, to now support him even when he leaves his own party and help him to be the founder of a new party, we say that the white world is looking on with a contemptuous smile.Theodore Roosevelt was more guilty of ignoring the deprivation of the constitutional rights of Colored men than any of his Republican predecessors.
He was the first Republican to go further and add a positive act of injustice and deliver a shocking blow at our rights. He was the first to call for the political heads of all those old-fashioned Republicans who opposed injustice to Colored men. He was the first to declare over his signature in favor of permitting the nullification of clause two of the 14th amendment.
He is the first to entertain lynchers at the White House. How violative of all self-respect, how illogical, how cowardly, how inconsistent for Colored men to help such a Republican to found a new party!And this is not half the story. He is calling loud for the confederate and ex-confederate and they are supporting him on the ground he is anti-Negro. Such a party is but adding another foe.Prof. R. Augustus Lawson of Hartford Conn., who gives a recital at Tomlinson Hall, Tuesday night Aug.
13, is recognized as the leading pianist of Conn. In speaking of him after one of his recitals in connection with the Hartford Philharmonic Association the Hartford Times says: "Mr. Lawson was full of broad expression, full of power and grasp, and he was easily in control of the score at all times....
Above all he led the orchestra, so that his solo was continually and harmoniously felt."The following are the subjects assigned to Indiana citizens for the thirteenth annual session of the National Negro Business League, which meets in Chicago, Aug. 21-23: "The Heavy Moving Business," Walter Jamison, Indianapolis; W. H. Bell, Evansville; "Conducting a Wholesale and Retail Coal Business," Samuel Welch, Indianapolis; "White Goods Manufacturing and Merchandise," H. L. Sanders, Indianapolis. Dr. Sumner A.
Furniss is a member of the National Executive committee. The Monon route has been selected as the official route from Indianapolis and rates and accommodations may be secured by calling Dr. Furniss.The Terre Haute Quarterly meeting closed last Sunday night with a large attendance. The 3 o'clock service was also largely attended. Rev. C. C.
Edwards preached the sermon. Rev.
Moody of First Free Baptist church, Terre Haute, delivered the closing sermon at night with much effect. One accession to the church.Read the Crown Garden advertisement and go and have your past, present and future told by Loretta, the ing Church--Resolutions PassedAfter three years of almost phenomenal success Dr. Wallace quits Bethel church and returns to Indiana to the regret of church and community.One success after another has crowned his efforts each year with increasing results until last fall the long standing mortgage was burned and Bethel Church was after 21 years of hard struggle freed from debt.The success continued many improvements were made on church and parsonage and everything paid for.

The church today does not owe a penny, as far as the church proper is concerned. During the last quarter over $1.100 was raised for all purposes thus clearing up all debt.Dr. Wallace's resignation was like a clap of thunder from a clear sky it took the congregation quite a while to realize what it meant. Things were moving on smoothly, the finances were all in good shape, the attendance this summer better than ever and the collections good and most every Sunday persons united with the church. At each quarterly occasion the classes showed a marked increase.During the three years over 250 persons have united with the church.
When the church realized that the separation of pastor and people had come and that it was not dissatisfaction on Dr. Wallace's part with the church, but a difference which the church had no part in, the various organizations did their best to show their appreciation both to Dr. and Mrs. Wallace.The Thimble Club, which she organized and which rendered splendid aid in paying the mortgage last year ($120) and this spring bought and paid for the piano, came in the way of a surprise to the parsonage bearing their regrets, best wishes and tokens.A gold watch and chain was presented to Dr. Wallace by the officers as a souvenir of the mortgage burning.
The last Quarterly Conference expressed its regrets in the following resolution:We, the officers and members here assembled in our last Quarterly A. M.
E. church, Detroit, do hereby ratify and reaffirm our confidence in the Christian manner, and dignified hearing and manly deportment which has characterized Dr. Wallace's stay during the three years while here. The great work of inspiring the confidence and holding the people and organize them and helping to uplift, and bringing this church up to the high plane which she now enjoys.As a preacher he is a clean cut gospel preacher. As a man and a citizen his stately bearing his many deportment with reproach. His character without a blemish.As a financier one of the greatest his work of paying and burning the morgage speaks in greater words than tongue can express.Be, therefore resolved, that this conference give Dr. Wallace the highest recommend and compliment his great deeds and his Christian life, his church and city loses one of the greatest men in the A. M. E. church.—Detroit
